ITINERARY

Day 1

Reach Indore and get assisted transfer from Airport/Railway Station to the hotel. Take a short rest and leave for the city tour and visit the below places as per your time availability.

Rajwada Palace

The biggest tourist attraction in Indore is the Rajwada, built-in 1749 by Malhar Rao Holkar to serve as his palace. The mammoth sevenstoreyed palace, a combination of Maratha, Mughal, and French architectural styles, reaches out to the sky from the chaotic lanes of Khajuri Bazaar, in the heart of the old city.

Krishnapura Chhatris

The beautiful chhatris of Krishnapura and Boliya Sarkar are located on the banks of the Khan river. The chhatris are distinguished by their soaring pyramidal spires, which take on a magical quality when illuminated at night.

Lalbagh Palace

Set amidst manicured gardens spread over nearly 72 acres in the southwest of the city is the magnificent Lalbagh Palace, built between 1886 and 1921. The palace blends Renaissance, Palladian and Baroque elements and houses grand chandeliers, rich Persian carpets, and stuffed gaming trophies

Central Museum

Indore's Central Museum possesses one of the best collections of Hindu and Jain sculptures from Madhya Pradesh, dating from the Gupta to Paramara periods.

Khajrana

Built by Rani Ahilya Bai Holkar, Khajrana Ganesh temple is one of the most visited temples in the city because of its history and religious beliefs attached to it. The idol was found in a well, it was taken out and a temple was established in 1735 by Ahilyabai Holkar. The gate, and the outer and upper walls of the Garbhagriha are made of Silver and different moods and festivals are depicted on them.

Kanch Temple

The beautiful Kanch Mandir near Rajwada was built by the Jain industrialist, Seth Hukumchand, in the early 20th century. The walls, ceiling, floor, and doors, even the paintings and murals here, are all made of glass, with cut-glass chandeliers adorning the ceiling. On the top floor is a special glass chamber that multiplies the images of three Tirthankaras – Adinath, Shantinath, and Chandraprabha – made of shimmering black onyx, to an infinite number.

Gandhi Hall

Indore's stunning Indo-Saracenic Town Hall was inaugurated in 1905. In 1948 it was christened Gandhi Hall. It has a four-faced domed clock tower in front, because of which, it is locally known as Ghanta Ghar.

Day 2

After early break fast start from Indore to Shri Mahakaleshwar of Ujjayini which will take a 1 hr 15 min (55.9 km) journey. Shri Mahakaleshwar of Ujjayini is known among the twelve celebrated Jyotirlingas in India. The glory of Mahakaleshwar temple has been vividly described in various Purans. When did the Mahakala temple first come into existence, is difficult to tell. However, the event may be assigned to the Pre-historic period. Puranas narrate that it was first established by Prajapita Brahma. After the darshan at Mahakaleshwar temple visit the following temples

Harsiddhi Temple

Harsiddhi Mata Temple, one of the 51 Shaktipeetha temples of Goddess, located near Rudra Sagar Lake in Ujjain the city of Mahakal, the worldfamous Mahakaleshwar Temple, Madhya Pradesh, India is a very important and popular pilgrimage site of city for a follower of Sanatan Dharma. The Harsiddhi temple stands 13th in the list of 51 Saktipeetas across the world. Harsiddhi Temple temple is within walking distance from Shree Mahakaleshwar Temple.

Kal Bhairav Temple

The Kal Bhairav temple is dedicated to Kal Bhairav, the guardian deity of the city. Located on the banks of the Shipra River, it is one of the most active temples in the city, visited by hundreds of devotees daily. Liquor is one of the offerings made to the temple deity. Kal Bhairav Temple is 5 KM away from Shree Mahakaleshwar Temple.

Sandipani Ashram

Sandipani Ashram is a holy shrine that is built in remembrance of the Maharishi Sandipani and is considered one of the famous tourist spots in Ujjain. According to mythology, it is believed that this is the ashram where Guru Sandipani used to teach Shri Krishna, his friend Sudama and Lord Krishna's brother Balram. This is 3 KM away from Kal Bhairav Temple.

Gulawat – Valley of Lotus

Gulawat village is located around 30 km from Indore. Gulawat valley is a self-fostered place situated amid nature, surrounded by eucalyptus and bamboo trees with small ponds in between water which comes from Yashwant Sagar Dam. In these ponds, beautiful lotuses blossom, which adds to the beauty of the place. Gulawat is 1 hr 50 min (70. km) away from Sandipani Ashram.

Pitra Parvat

Pitra Parvat (mountain) is a place near Indore where people used to plant trees to pay homage to their ancestors. On the top of this picturesque mountain, an Octa metal statue of Lord Hanuman is made out of recycled utensils which are 72 feet in length and breadth and weigh approx 108 tons.
