Reach Indore and get assisted transfer from Railway Station/Airport to the hotel. Stay for the night there. Package will start from Dinner and stay on the same day. Once in Indore city you can spend some time for purchases. Maheshwari, Chanderi, Indori sarees are famous and Indore in the right place to purchase them.

Day 2 - Thursday, 10 December, 2026

Leave for the Omakareshwar Jyotirlinga temple by 6 AM. Omakareshwar is approximately 80 km away from Indore and may take 3 hours to reach. On the way we can have our breakfast. On arrival at Omakareshwar go for special darshan and once completed proceed to Mamaleshwar for darshan. The temple is at the island of Mandhata which falls on the confluence point of Kaveri and Narmada rivers. Mandhata island has its shape resembling the sacred symbol of “OM”. The temple is built in Nagara style architecture and have detailed and intricate carvings. The Jyotirlinga which is installed on the base floor of the temple remains immersed in water. There are 20 shrines which are devoted to several deities including Ganesh, Krishna, Narmada, and Shani. After both the darshans are complete, return to Indore city hotel. Lunch will be served in between. Later rerach back to the hotel for dinner and night stay. (Meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner)

Day 3 - Friday, 11 December, 2026

This day will have a late start. After breakfast leave for Indore city tour and visit the below places as per your time availability.

Rajwada Palace

The biggest tourist attraction in Indore is the Rajwada, built-in 1749 by Malhar Rao Holkar to serve as his palace. The mammoth seven storied palace, a combination of Maratha, Mughal, and French architectural styles, reaches out to the sky from the chaotic lanes of Khajuri Bazaar, in the heart of the old city.

Krishnapura Chhatris

The beautiful chhatris of Krishnapura and Boliya Sarkar are located on the banks of the Khan river. The chhatris are distinguished by their soaring pyramidal spires, which take on a magical quality when illuminated at night.

Lalbagh Palace

Set amidst manicured gardens spread over nearly 72 acres in the southwest of the city is the magnificent Lalbagh Palace, built between 1886 and 1921. The palace blends Renaissance, Palladian and Baroque elements and houses grand chandeliers, rich Persian carpets, and stuffed gaming trophies

Khajrana

Built by Rani Ahilya Bai Holkar, Khajrana Ganesh temple is one of the most visited temples in the city because of its history and religious beliefs attached to it. The idol was found in a well, it was taken out and a temple was established in 1735 by Ahilyabai Holkar. The gate, and the outer and upper walls of the Garbhagriha are made of Silver and different moods and festivals are depicted on them.

Kanch Temple

The beautiful Kanch Mandir near Rajwada was built by the Jain industrialist, Seth Hukumchand, in the early 20th century. The walls, ceiling, floor, and doors, even the paintings and murals here, are all made of glass, with cut-glass chandeliers adorning the ceiling. On the top floor is a special glass chamber that multiplies the images of three Tirthankaras – Adinath, Shantinath, and Chandraprabha – made of shimmering black onyx, to an infinite number.

After visiting these places start from Indore to Shri Mahakaleshwar of Ujjayin which will take a 1 hr 15 min (56 km) journey. On arrival check in to the hotel and after a short break leave for the temple and corridor visit. Later come back to the hotel for
